THANKSGIVING PLACECARDS & SCRIPTURES

Mom made placecards when I was a little girl that we pulled out every Thanksgiving. We used poster board, autumn leaves, and contact paper to seal them.

My Thanksgiving gift to you is these sweet Thanksgiving placecards to make your table more festive and give direction to where people should sit at the often crowded table.

How To Use Placecards

Print them single-sided in color on cardstock. Cut the placecards out and laminate for durability.

If you want a variety, print pages 5-6. If you want matching placecards, choose one of the pages starting at page 9. Print, cut out, and laminate.

I like to lay the placecards on top of the plate for they are easy to spot. Guests and family members look for their names and sit at that place. You can also lead them up against a glass or cup. Or slide into a placecard holder.

How to Use Scripture Cards

You can add the Scripture cards to the plate, placecard holder, or next to the place setting.

Or you can put them in a basket and each guest draws a card and reads it.

Like the placecards, print single-sided in color on cardstock. Cut the Scripture cards out and laminate for durability.

From Our House to Yours

We wish you the happiest of Thanksgivings! God bless you!

With Love,

Meredith Curtis

About the Author

Meredith Curtis, a pastor's wife and homeschooling mom of five children, leads worship, mentors ladies, and, sometimes, even cooks dinner. Her passion is to equip people to love Jesus, raise godly children, and change the world around them with the power of the Gospel. "Lives are changed in the context of relationships," Meredith often says, as well as, "Be a world changer! Raise world changers!" She enjoys speaking to small and large groups.
