How to Use World History Journal

Journaling, or notebooking, is a great way to remember what you learn as well as create a study tool to go back to in the future.

There are several part of these journal pages for 36 weeks of world history:

- Time Period We Covered This Week
- What I Read This Week
- Most Interesting Thing I Learned This Week
- History Labs/Hands-On Fun
- Interesting People
- Important Places
- Intriquing Events
- Movies/TV Shows/Documentaries/YouTube Vidoes
- Photos/Drawing/Doodles

This also creates a records of work completed in the world history class.

To Print & Use

Print cover in color on cardstock single-sided.

Print pages 7-150 in black and white double-sided on 3-hold punch paper (or punch holes afterward).

Place cover under the clear pocket on front of the notebook.

Place pages inside the notebook.

Real Men Discipleship Manuals

God calls fathers to impart life to their sons, passing the baton in the race of faith. These Bible studies were created for fathers (or mentors) to go through this material with their sons. Pastor Mike Curtis used these materials to mentor his own son and other young men in the church. These manuals cover tough issues that fathers and sons need to talk about and live out in their lives.

Real Men High School Electives

Do you want to prepare your sons to become godly husbands, fathers, church leaders, and pillars in their communities? These one-credit high school life skills classes build character and prepare young men for the future. Using living books, Scripture, and practical assignments, young men will learn to become the man God has called them to be.

About the Author

Meredith Curtis, a pastor's wife and homeschooling mom of five children, leads worship, mentors ladies, and, sometimes, even cooks dinner. Her passion is to equip people to love Jesus, raise godly children, and change the world around them with the power of the Gospel. "Lives are changed in the context of relationships," Meredith often says, as well as, "Be a world changer! Raise world changers!" She enjoys speaking to small and large groups.
