CHRISTMAS PLACECARDS & SCRIPTURES

Mom made placecards when I was a little girl that we pulled out every Christmas. We used poster board, autumn leaves, and contact paper to seal them.

My Christmas gift to you is these sweet Christmas placecards to make your table more festive and give directions to where people should sit at the often crowded table.

There are 12 different Scripture cards and 12 matching placecards.

How To Use Placecards

Print them single-sided in color on cardstock. Cut the placecards out and laminate for durability.

Write the names on the white section in the middle:

If you want a variety, print pages 5-6. If you want matching placecards, choose one of the pages starting at page 11. Print, cut out, and laminate.

I like to lay the placecards on top of the plate for they are easy to spot. Guests and family members look for their names and sit at that place. You can also lead them up against a glass or cup. Or slide into a placecard holder.

How to Use Scripture Cards

You can add the Scripture cards to the plate, placecard holder, or next to the place setting.

Or you can put them in a basket and each guest draws a card and reads it.

Like the placecards, print single-sided in color on cardstock. Cut the Scripture cards out and laminate for durability.

From Our House to Yours

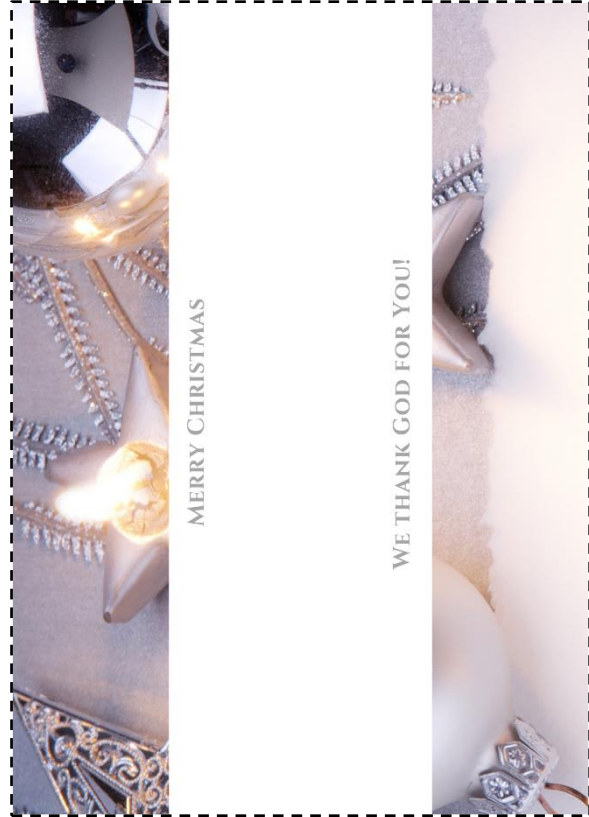

We wish you the happiest of Christmases! God bless you!

With Love,
